

HARVARD CLUB Established 1883 of WASHINGTON, D.C.

July / August 2011

Dinner at Elizabeth's Gone Raw 1341 L Street NW Friday July 22 6:30-9:30pm

A gluten and dairy free vegan luxury banquet meal with paired wines specially selected for the Harvard Club. The $120 fee includes dinner/wine and gratuity.

"Elizabeth's Gone Raw is a celebration of nature and the ingredients of Earth -- in their purest form. Our menus have been designed to evoke the essence of raw foods, prepared with imagination and thoughtfulness. Each dish boasts a variety of colors, textures, tastes, and scents, combining foods in a way that is both healthy and innovative. Everything we serve -- from corn tamales to cashew pate to chocolate ganache tart -- is dairy, gluten and meat-free. Our wines are organic and biodynamic."

Dear Member of the Harvard Community,

I hope that you enjoyed our recent Club events, such the Annual Meeting and the Harvard Alumni Association-sponsored Global Networking Night. In addition, I hope that you will enjoy many of our upcoming events, such as:

- Dinner with our 2010 Public Service Award winner Marvin Kalb and his daughter as they speak about the effect of the United States' loss of the Vietnam War on the American presidency;
- A vegan gourmet dining experience created exclusively for the Harvard Club at Elizabeth's Gone Raw;
- Our all-Ivy Round-Robin mixed doubles tennis event;
- A showing of La Traviata at the Strathmore;
- A sushi seminar (complete with dinner and a sushi tasting) given by Chef Niki Shimasaki; and
- A showing of the Arena Stage's celebrated production of Oklahoma! offered at a special discounted price.

As President of the Harvard Club of Washington, DC, I am frequently asked, "Why should I join the Harvard Club?" And, in response, I can only think, How could you not? You see, the Harvard Club of Washington, DC is a 501(c)(3) non-profit that does not receive any funding from either Harvard University or the Harvard Alumni Association. Despite this fact, we manage to interview every prospective Harvard undergraduate in the DC area; provide scholarships to DC-area students; provide stipends to Harvard undergraduates who work in DC-area non-profit organizations over the summer; and actively engage in community service that benefits the local community. In addition, we attempt to provide social, cultural and educational programming for DC-area alumni and to facilitate connections between you and Harvard and between you and your fellow alums.

How do we do these things? With your help. Your membership dues, your volunteering your time and skills, and your attending our paid events. Without any one of these things, the Club could not function successfully.

Therefore, if you are not already a member of the Harvard Club, please consider joining. As the Harvard Club is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, your membership dues are fully deductible as allowed by law. And if you are already a member, please consider donating to our scholarship fund; our Harvard book award fund, which allows us to award Harvard Prize Books to outstanding DC-area high school juniors; or the Club as a whole.

I look forward to seeing you at our events and on our membership roll.

Very truly yours,

René Rocque Lee '97, JD '00

Dinner with
Marvin and Deborah Kalb
July 19th
6:30-8:30 pm

In Haunting Legacy, the father-daughter journalist team of Marvin and Deborah Kalb presents a compelling, accessible, and hugely important history of presidential decision making on one crucial issue: In light of the Vietnam debacle, under what circumstances should the United States go to war?

The authors spent five years interviewing hundreds of officials from every administration and researching in presidential libraries and archives, and they've produced insight and information never before published. Equal parts taut history, revealing biography, and cautionary tale, Haunting Legacy is must reading for anyone trying to understand the power of the past to influence war-and-peace decisions of the present, and of the future.

The Harvard Club of Washington DC is a 501c(3) organization and does not receive financial support from the University. Funds raised from these events will support the Harvard Club in its charitable mission, including the sponsorship of summer stipends for college students to work at other DC area non-profits."

Because the Harvard Club must pay expenses for events in advance, we require at least one week notice to issue any event registration refunds. If you find you cannot attend an event less than a week prior to the event, you may transfer your registration to another member of the Harvard community with notification to Caren Pauley, Harvard Club
