Dear Harvard Club Members,

Happy holidays to you and your families – from all of us at the Harvard Club of Washington!

On Thursday, November 21st, we will honor Robert Reischauer (AB '63) with the Club's highest honor, our Public Service Award, over lunch at the University Club. Please join us for the flagship event of our year – and for an opportunity to honor someone who has contributed so much to Harvard and to public life in these United States.

In the remaining months of 2013, we will continue to host a number of extraordinary events for you and your fellow alumni. Please join us on November 23rd for the Harvard-Yale game telecast. Please join us on December 13th for a dinner conversation with Robert E. Simon (Class of 1935), the founder of Reston, VA.

You can find more about all of our events – including upcoming rum tastings, tennis games, happy hours, and private tours - on our website (www.harvard-dc.org).

Since 1883, our Club has provided unique and compelling opportunities for education and fellowship to members of our Harvard community here in Washington. All of this is made possible because of your support of our Club. The Harvard Club of Washington receives no funding from Harvard University. All of our funding comes from the generosity of members like you.

And so – during this holiday season, and in this time of giving, I thank you for your support of our Club. And I ask that you continue to support your Club generously.

Please remember that your Club dues and any additional donations you make to the Harvard Club of Washington are fully tax deductible. If your employer provides a matching program for charitable donations – please consider asking your employer to match your contributions to our Club. We very much appreciate your support, and every dollar you donate to the Club goes to support our communities here in Washington and in Cambridge.

With your support, the Harvard Club of Washington will be able to continue to connect you with the more than 16,000 graduates of Harvard who are a vital part of life in Washington DC. With your support, the Harvard Club of Washington will continue to bring together the very best that our communities here and in Cambridge have to offer.

You can donate to our Club via our website, and you can feel free to call me at our offices (202.337.1300) with any questions.

Thank you, and happy holidays!

Very truly yours,

David Greene AB '91, MBA '96
President, Harvard Club of Washington, DC

Host a Harvard College student in your organization over Winter Break!

<http://www.ocs.fas.harvard.edu/alumni/externship.htm>

Be a part of the new January Winternship Program, coordinated by the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, Office of Career Services.

A Winternship is essentially an unpaid job-shadowing experience in your workplace, lasting anywhere from one to 18 days during the January winter break (January 2-25).

Winternships allow students to observe and ask questions, provide participants with hands-on experience, educate students about your organization or industry, and build relationships. An important part of a January Winternship is your willingness to share your career pathway with current Harvard students.
