Dear Fellow Harvard Club Members,

In March and April, we are looking forward to hosting a number of extraordinary events for you and your fellow alumni. In this newsletter, you'll find information regarding our upcoming events with the ambassador from Greece (at his embassy), a dinner conversation with Robert E. Simon '35 (the founder of Reston, VA), Harvard happy hours, and more! Full details are available on our website (www.harvard-dc.org), and you can always call me or our executive director Caren Pauley at 202.337.1300 with any questions.

Please register now to join us at these exciting upcoming events, and please stay tuned for more to come!

Since 1883, our Club has provided unique and compelling opportunities for education and fellowship to members of our Harvard community here in Washington. All of this is possible because of your support of our Club. The Harvard Club of Washington receives no funding from Harvard University. All of our funding comes from the generosity of members like you.

Thank you for your past support of our Club. If you can, please continue to support your Club generously in 2014...and beyond.

Please remember that your Club dues and any additional donations you make to the Harvard Club of Washington are fully tax deductible. If your employer provides a matching program for charitable donations – please consider asking your employer to match your contributions to our Club. We very much appreciate your support. Every dollar you donate to the Club goes to support our communities here in Washington and in Cambridge.

With your support, the Harvard Club of Washington will be able to continue to connect you with the more than 16,000 graduates of Harvard who are a vital part of life in Washington DC. With your support, the Harvard Club of Washington will continue to bring together the very best that our communities here and in Cambridge have to offer.

You can donate to our Club via our website, and you can feel free to call me at our offices with any questions.

Thank you, and happy New Year!

Very truly yours,

David Greene AB '91, MBA '96
President, Harvard Club of Washington, DC

6:30pm - 8:30pm

Please Register Ahead

Paper Moon

1073 31st Street, NW
Washington, DC 20007

This group brings together graduate students interested in science policy and provides a platform for understanding, applying, and exploring the intersection of science and policy.

This semester the group is visiting with 10-15 students, and they hope to make it a permanent fixture in the future. The goals of this trip are to learn how scientists and policymakers tackle science policy issues and to explore career paths for scientists in policy and government. They are planning to visit federal agencies, think tanks, and non-profit organizations involved in policy making in science, healthcare, and technology.

SPONSOR A HARVARD BOOK AWARD

The Harvard Book Award program is an important way for local alumni to recognize students of high character in our community. In the greater DC area, Harvard Book Awards are presented annually in more than 100 high schools to an outstanding student in the junior class who combines excellence in scholarship and high character with achievement in other fields. The selected student typically receives the award at the school's graduation exercise or other school awards program. The Harvard Book has been chosen by HCW as the designated book. It contains a collection of passages and quotations about Harvard from such illustrious writers as John Updike, David Halberstam, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Theodore White, and Charles Dickens.

HCW handles all the details and will contact the school to arrange for the awarding of the prize. Often the alumnus/alumna who donated the book is invited to present the award in a ceremony at the school. In addition, HCW invites all the book award winners to an annual breakfast celebration in their honor, to recognize the students, and for each student, a teacher or principal from their school.

To sponsor a tax-deductible book(s) for $35 each, providing support for the HCW Harvard Book Award program and the Breakfast to honor book award recipients, please visit the website at: <http://www.harvard-dc.org/donate.html>
