Dear Harvard Club Members,

It is nomination season here at the Harvard Club of Washington, DC (HCW). The Club is currently in the process of soliciting nominations, both to the HCW Board of Directors and for the 2011 Public Service Award.

At the Club's annual meeting in June, members will elect candidates to fill certain open Board positions and all officer positions for the coming year (2011-2012). We currently are soliciting candidates to fill these posts. I have appointed the following club members to serve on the Nominating Committee:

- David Treworgy, MBA '93, Immediate Past President of the HCW;
- Margaret Angell, AB '98 and MPA '06, Elected Director of the Harvard Alumni Association (HAA) Board of Directors;
- Teddy Chestnut, AB '06, HCW board member and Vice President of Activities;
- Amanda Gregory, JD '04, HCW board member and Co-Chair of the HCW Community Service Committee;
- Colette Hodes, AB '78, HCW board member;
- Tom Karr, AB '84, HCW board member and Co-Chair of the HCW Schools Committee; and
- Elizabeth Lewis, AB '01 and MBA '06, HCW board member and Co-Chair of the HCW Schools Committee.

If you wish to nominate someone to the Board (including yourself), please contact David Treworgy at nominations@harvard-dc.org. Candidates should be members of the HCW at the patron level or higher, available for a monthly Board luncheon in downtown Washington, and willing and able to volunteer for various club-sponsored events over the course of the year.

In addition, if you would like to nominate someone for the 2011 Public Service Award, instructions for doing so can be found in this newsletter.

As always, thank you for being a member of the Harvard Club and we look forward to seeing you at an upcoming event.

Very truly yours,
René Rocque Lee '97, JD '00
President, Harvard Club of Washington

SPONSOR A PRIZE BOOK AWARD

The Schools and Scholarships Committee of the Harvard Club of Washington DC invites you to participate in the Harvard Prize Book Program. Prize Books are presented annually in schools around the world to outstanding high school juniors who demonstrate excellence in scholarship and achievement in nonacademic areas. Locally, the Harvard Club of Washington DC presents Prize Books in high schools throughout Washington DC, Maryland and Virginia; last year, we were able to award Prize Books to students at more than 100 local schools.

The Prize Book award is an important way to recognize the achievements of talented young people. This program also helps us create a Harvard presence within schools and allows our local Harvard Club to connect with and contribute to the life of the local community. Prize Books are generally presented at the end of the academic year at each school's graduating exercises; the school determines the recipient of the Prize Book. Depending on the school, there may be an opportunity for the Harvard alumnus/a giving the Book Prize to present it directly to the student, and this can be a fun and meaningful event. To sponsor a Prize Book, please click on the following link: <http://www.harvard-dc.org/donate.html>

THANK YOU for considering participation in the Harvard Prize Book program this year. Questions - Betsy Wanger '85 at bwanger@post.harvard.edu.

2011 Public Service Award Request for Nominations

The Harvard Club of Washington DC is requesting nominations for the 2011 Public Service Award (PSA). The HCW awarded the first PSA in 2000, in memory of the late Elliot L. Richardson, '40, LLB '47, LLD '72, who exemplified public service. The award is presented annually to an individual who attended or has been affiliated with Harvard University, made significant contributions to the public good, and whose service has at least in part been focused on the Washington, DC area. While current or former elected officials have been among those considered as potential recipients of the PSA, the "public good" is not limited to government service. The Harvard Club has presented the PSA to individuals whose contributions are in areas as diverse as government service, social entrepreneurship, the arts, and journalism.

If you would like to nominate someone for the 2011 Public Service Award, please send an email to Janet Abrams, AB '83 at psa@harvard-dc.org by April 1, 2011. The email should contain the following information:

- The nominee's name and Harvard affiliation;
- A one page statement describing the nominee's contribution to public service as well as the significance and impact of that contribution;
- Contact information for both the nominee and the nominator; and
- Any additional information that you feel would be useful.

If you do not have email, you may submit your written nomination to:
