Dear Members of the Harvard Community,

Thank you for making 2011 such a successful year for the Harvard Club of Washington, DC! In 2011, the Harvard Club and its members:

- Interviewed over 1,000 Harvard applicants from the DC area;
- Raised scholarship funds for Harvard undergraduates from the DC area;
- Donated 117 Harvard Prize Books to outstanding high school juniors in the DC area who demonstrated excellence in scholarship and achievement in non-academic areas;
- Awarded two summer community service fellowships to current Harvard students who performed community service and/or worked with non-profit organizations in the DC area;
- Volunteered at several non-profit organizations that provide services to the poor and homeless in the DC area; and
- Visited college fairs and high schools throughout the area in order to give presentations on applying and preparing for college in general and Harvard in particular.

All of the above-mentioned activities were made possible by you, your membership dues and your donations to the Club.

The Club is a 501(c)(3) non-profit that receives no financial assistance from Harvard University. Therefore, all of our operating expenses, programming and community service activities are entirely funded by our members and our event revenue. In addition, we depend on your continued generosity and support in order to continue to operate and to provide services to you and to the DC area.

So please to join the Club (<http://www.harvard-dc.org/memsub.html>), renew your membership (<http://www.harvard-dc.org/memsub.html>) or donate to the Club (<http://www.harvard-dc.org/donate.html>) in order to ensure the Club's continued success in 2012. Your membership dues and donations are tax deductible as allowable as law and may be eligible for your company's corporate matching programs. For more information, please contact membership@harvard-dc.org.

As always, thank you for your generous and continued support and I look forward to seeing you at our 2012 events!

Very truly yours,

HCW ANNOUNCEMENTS

JOIN THE SCHOOLS COMMITTEE

The Club's largest volunteering activity is Schools Committee. Each year, over 300 graduates of the Harvard College interview candidates from the greater Washington area -- which spans from the far reaches of Loudoun County in Virginia down to Solomon's Island in southern Maryland. In 2010-11, we were able to offer every applicant to Harvard from our area an interview. In total, Schools Committee interviewed over 1,000 applicants from this area. In addition, Schools Committee members volunteer at college fairs throughout the area, and give presentations on Harvard, as well as the college preparation and application processes more generally, at high schools across our area.

We have just finished interviewing Early Action applicants for the 2011-12 year, and we are still looking for additional interviewers for the Regular Action period, which continues into March.

If you are interested, please email Elizabeth Lewis '01 at elewis@post.harvard.edu or Tom Karr '84 at tomkarr@rcn.com.
