An Evening at the Residence of HE Gérard Araud, the Ambassador of France

Gérard Araud, 62, a career diplomat, was appointed Ambassador of France to the United States in September 2014. Over the course of his career, Mr. Araud has developed specialized knowledge in two key areas: the Middle East and strategic & security issues.

The French ambassador's residence was designed by Jules Henri de Sibour in 1910. The building is a combination of Tudor Revival and Jacobean Revival styles of architecture

This event is limited to Club members and their guests.

Dear Harvard Club Members,

Please join us for the 2016 Annual Meeting of the Harvard Club of Washington, DC. We will hear reports of the Club's past year, elect officers and directors-at-large for next year, and enjoy dinner together. The meeting will take place on Thursday, June 16, 2016, at the offices of Hogan Lovells at 555 13th Street, NW, Washington, DC 20004.

I wish to thank all who aided the nomination process, including those who responded to our call for nominations and the members of the Nominating Committee: Past President Deborah Gelin AB '79, MBS '83 (Chair), Karen Biala SM '13, Courtney Margaret Dagher AB '13, Past President Michael Gaw AB '90, Nadine Duplessy Kearns AB '96, Michael D. Sanders, Jr., EdM '14, and Jeffrey H. Tignor AB '96.

The Nominating Committee proposes the following slate of officers for 2016-17:

- President: T.K. Yang AB '98
- Vice President, Administration: Steve Feyerick AB '85
- Vice President, Activities: Diana Preston AB '88
- Vice President, Membership: Barbara L. Cammarata AB '89
- Vice President, Radcliffe Affairs: Vanessa E. Beary EdM '11, EdD '14
- Secretary: Sanjay Patnaik DBA '12
- Treasurer: Merrie Schippereit MBA '79

In addition, the Club has 12 director-at-large positions, each for a three-year term, with expiration dates staggered so that four terms expire each year. For the four three-year positions with terms expiring in June 2019, the Nominating Committee nominates Karen Biala SM '13, Elizabeth M. Lewis AB '01, MBA '06, Flavian Marwa MPA '09, and Michael D. Sanders, Jr., EdM '14.

The Nominating Committee observes that the proposed Board comprises a sufficient number of recent graduates to meet the requirement in Section 4.02(c) of the Club's by-laws that at least four Board members "shall have attended Harvard University . . . within the past ten (10) years when elected."

Finally, the Club offers its profound thanks to these departing Board members for their dedication and service to the Club: Tom Karr AB '84, Robert H. Loeffler AB '65, Michael Rauta AB '95, AM '96, and Matthew Rojansky AB '02. We are deeply grateful to them for their contributions to the Club, and we bid a fond farewell.

I look forward to seeing all of you at the Annual Meeting!

Best wishes,

Yi-Fun Hsueh AB '87, JD '91
President
Harvard Club of Washington, D.C.

A Dinner Conversation with Catesby Leigh, Distinguished Art and Architecture Critic

Catesby Leigh was born and raised in Washington and has been writing about public art and architecture for over twenty years. After graduating from Princeton, he spent most of the 1980s in South America as a correspondent for the Cox Newspaper chain. While traveling around that region, he became increasingly interested in the sharp decrease in visual amenity in postwar urban environments. Mr. Leigh's art and architecture commentary has appeared in The Wall Street Journal, Weekly Standard, National Review, First Things, City Journal, Arts&Antiques, and other publications.

The subject of Mr. Leigh's Talk is "Architecture of Monuments." This Event is jointly sponsored by the Harvard Club of Washington, DC and the MIT Club.

Essential Oils for Self-Care, with Nancy Illman AB '87 Essential Oils for Self-Care, with Nancy Illman AB '87

Nancy's presentation is intended to inspire and empower people to harness the power of essential oils in their own homes, focusing primarily on three single oils and three proprietary essential-oil blends from doTERRA, the world's leading manufacturer and distributor of essential oils. Club members attending this event will receive and take home samples of all six of the oils discussed in Nancy's multi-sensory presentation.

Nancy Illman is a reiki energy healer, musician, artist, vegan, essential-oils expert, and catalyst for self-transformation. She attended Harvard College in the 1980s and was a member of the Hasty Pudding Club, a frequent diner at Hillel, and a dedicated member of the Bach Society Orchestra. She graduated in 1988 with an honors degree in English and American Language and Literature.

Georgetown North: Silver Spoons and Spies Walking Tour w/Club Member Barbara Saffir

Stroll through one of the capital's oldest neighborhoods with the author of "Walking Washington, DC" to ogle famous homes of the Kennedy clan, CIA spymaster Allen Dulles, film legend Elizabeth Taylor, telephone inventor Alexander Graham Bell, Washington Post publishers Kay and Philip Graham, and other DC "celebs." The 2.5-mile walk also saunters past the final resting place of the "founder" of IBM, Dumbarton House (HQ of the National Society of the Colonial Dames of America) and Harvard's Dumbarton Oaks Research Library and Collection (garden).

Barbara J. Saffir has been exploring DC's urban treasures and its softer side for the Washington Post, other publications, and herself for three decades. As a former reporter, political researcher, architecture critic, and nature photographer, she has always adored sharing adventures and discoveries that make people say, "Wow!" Saffir earned her ABE from Harvard Extension in 1982. She currently lives in Fairfax, VA.

Each participant will receive Barbara's book, Walking Washington DC.

Members and their guests - $20 Non-members - $45

When: Sunday, June 26, 9:30am - 11:30am
